No problem. 9:30 sounds good. Talk to you then!

Hi Emi, sorry I missed you yesterday. I ended up taking more of the afternoon off than I expected. I'll give you a call this morning around 9:30, and if that's not good for you, I'll try another time. I'll also have comments to you today, but I'd like to talk with you first. Thanks! - Jenny

Hi Jenny,

As I said on the voicemail, I wasn't sure whether you're checking e-mails today, so I also left you a vm. As an update, I'll be here today until about 3, then I'm also available all day tomorrow.

Thanks,
Emi

Sorry, I meant I'm free all afternoon today. Please let me know what time would work for you.

Hi Jenny,

I'm free all afternoon. Is there a good time for you?

Thanks,
Emi

Hi Emi, are you free to talk today or tomorrow on the EPA permit and BiOp? I just talked with the rest of the EPA team here on the BiOp, and I wanted to share with you some of the concerns on the level of information in the BiOp to demonstrate take. If you call my voicemail, it says I'm out sick, but if you let me know a good time to talk, I can call you.

Thanks - Jenny
